Department of lifelong learning organized one day workshop on ACRYLIC CANVAS PAINTING In which 76 students ,senior citizens and faculties take actively part and show their fully interest towards the workshop and learn beautiful acrylic canvas paintings . Material which is required for the workshop is canvas board size 10/12, fine arts brush, sunflower color kit...

Acrylic canvas painting is usually stretched over a wooden frame (called stretcher bars) and then primed with a gesso that creates a surface receptive to the paint. Unlike oils, acrylics will adhere to an unprimed canvas, but the colors may be somewhat dull compare to acrylic painted onto a primed canvas.
