The chhatris were built by the Holkar dynasty to commemorate the deceased members of the dynasty. These chhatris had incredible architectural structures like arches etc and temple dedicated to lord Shiva. Apart from this, the chhatris named . Apart from this, the chhatris named for Krishna Bai Holkar, Yashwantrao holkar and Malhar rao holakar II were also included in the walk. They are located on the banks of river “kanha” which was previously known as “Shata”. It holds a great significance in the history of Indore and was also one of the main source of water in the earlier times. On the same spot it was also explained how the city got its name. Indore was initially named as “Indrapur” based on the Indrapur temple which eventually changed to Indore with time Valedictory Session Through this heritage walk, we got to know about many unknown facts associated with the history and heritage of our city.
