DECLARATION

Criterion-1: 1.3.4 Percentage of students undertaking field projects / internships (Current Year data)

The admissions were given in the following programs in 2017:

1. M.Tech. in Data Science
2. M.B.A. in Business Analytics

Both programs are of two-years duration. It is compulsory for all admitted students to undertake industrial projects or internship during third and fourth semesters of M.Tech. program or fourth semester of M.B.A. program. There is no teaching during these semesters. Therefore, all the students admitted in above two programs in 2017 are currently doing internship or field based projects.
