Report on National Seminar on “Human Rights- Challenges in Time Ahead”

held on 11th March 2019, Saturday

School of law ,a constituent of Devi Ahilya Vishwavidyalaya, organized a one day National Seminar on the theme “Human Rights-challenges in time ahead”, to get a perspective on the same from global, National and regional mechanism. The Seminar was organized on 30th March 2019 at A.K Ramani Memorial Hall, School of computer science and IT, in which Hon’ble member of M.P Human Rights Commission , Shri Manohar Mamtani was invited as the chief guest and keynote speaker of the ceremony.

Dr.Uday Pratap singh from NLIU, Bhopal, Dr.Vikas Gandhi from GNLU, Gandhi Nagar and Dr. Arvind Tiwari, professor and Dean, TATA Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai were the speakers of this seminar.

The seminar started with floral welcome of guests followed by the Kulgeet and Lamp lightning. Hon’ble chief guest Shri Manohar Mamtani was welcomed by Prof. Narendra Dhakad and was introduced by the senior faculty of school of law, Dr.Archana Ranka. Thereafter, Head of School of Law, Dr. Manish Sitlani welcomed the guests and participants and introduced the program to all.

The program furthered by the keynote address by Shri Manohar Mamtani, Member, M.P. Human Rights Commission. He rightly directed that, challenges are not ahead of us they are in our minds,he took us through the development of legislation since independence and concurrence with bill of rights,he also took us through the development of human rights through judicial interpretation

After the enlightening speech of Hon’ble chief guest, Vice chancellor DAVV, Dr. Narendra Dhakad gave the word of blessings to all and spoke about basic human rights violation existing in our society in present scenario.

The inaugural ceremony was succeeded by first speaker Dr. Uday Pratap Singh. He illuminated backdrop of development of Human Rights dating back to ancient times and also inclusive of religious texts. He also enlightened about the further development in regard to women, disabled ,children and other minorities with regard to formation of modern states and industrialization. He gave us a comprehensive international perspective.

After the speech there was the break for lunch and after the lunch break second speaker Dr. Vikas Gandhi rejuvenated the session with establishing and inter relation between Natural law and Positive law theory with contemporary examples in various legislations. Connecting the subject with universalism and obligations upon the state to protect, respect and fulfil these laws towards individuals, he also elaborated the International and Regional mechanism.

Followed was the last speaker for the session Professor Arvind Tiwari ,Who took us through the social evils existing in the Post vedic era in the background of the position of Human Rights in our Shastra.He also brought forward the practical reality existing in the country.

A valedictory session was held around 5 PM, session was taken with the words of blessing from Dr Arvind Tiwari Sir and Dr Vikas Gandhi Sir , they guiding us with the way ahead in Human Rights.

Conclusion of the National Seminar on Human Rights –Challenges in time ahead was done by words of gratitude and Thanks giving by DR Manish Sitlani, Head School of Law followed by Photo session, followed by high tea.
