Enhancing Creativity among Students

The university conducts several workshops, training programs and competitions based on art and craft for students. An exhibition "Nav Srujan" is conducted every year to showcase the creativity of students